Summary

Spiritual resiliency comes from shared memories and moments of worship.

Scripture

But watch out! Be careful never to forget what you yourself have seen. Do not let these memories escape from your mind as long as you live! And be sure to pass them on to your children and grandchildren. -Deuteronomy 4:9 (NLT)

Remember how the LORD your God led you all the way in the wilderness these forty years, to humble and test you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commands. He humbled you, causing you to hunger and then feeding you with manna, which neither you nor your ancestors had known, to teach you that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. Your clothes did not wear out and your feet did not swell during these forty years ... When you have eaten and are satisfied, praise the LORD your God for the good land he has given you. Be careful that you do not forget the LORD your God, failing to observe his commands, his laws and his decrees that I am giving you this day. Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down, and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all you have is multiplied, then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery ... You may say to yourself, "My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me." But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your ancestors, as it is today. -Deuteronomy 8:2-4, 10-14, 17-18 (NIV)

After that whole generation had been gathered to their ancestors, another generation grew up who knew neither the LORD nor what he had done for Israel. Then the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD and served the Baals. -Judges 2:10-11(NIV)

Let's Start

Following Pastor Kyle's question-of-the-day suggestion, how did God provide for you today?

Gratitude and Prayer

What happened this past week that you are grateful for? What would you like to pray for today? How did God work in your life since the last time we were together? What is He doing through you as it relates to your Adopt 7?

Let's Talk

1. What family of origin memories do you have about sharing moments (meals, family devotions, worship services) together?
2. How would you rate your current situation in regards to these types of shared moments (meals, devotions, worship services)? In what area are you strongest? Weakest?
3. Who in your life could you invite to regularly share meals, devotions or worship?
4. In the area you are strongest in, what advice do you have for others to make that area more vibrant? Why do you think you struggle with your weaker area?
5. Do you frequently share memories of God's provision and moments of praising God with your family and others? How can you make this practice more regular?
6. In the Deuteronomy 8 passage, what must the Israelites guard against? Are these the same types of things that distract you from your relationship with God?
7. Share a time when someone shared God's provision in his or her life or praised God in conversation and how that impacted you.

Let's Act

1. What steps will you take this week to implement more spiritual resiliency and shared moments into your and your loved one's lives?
