Unequaled Love December 21, 2025

Summary

In this final message in the series “Our Give First God,” Kyle shows how God’s generosity is ultimately revealed in His unequaled love. In Isaiah 7, God offers King Ahaz a sign as a gift of relationship, but Ahaz refuses because he does not truly trust God. Even in rejection, God still gives a sign—pointing forward to Jesus. In John 3, we see that the greatest sign of God’s love is that He gave His Son so we could have eternal life. God’s love is not shown by giving us everything we want or affirming every choice, but by giving us what we need most: salvation through Jesus. How we respond to this gift—belief or unbelief—reveals what we truly trust. God’s generosity is unending, unearned, personal and ultimately a sign of His love, calling us to respond with faith and worship.

Scripture

Again the Lord spoke to Ahaz, “Ask the Lord your God for a sign, whether in the deepest depths or in the highest heights.”

But Ahaz said, “I will not ask; I will not put the Lord to the test.”

Then Isaiah said, “Hear now, you house of David! Is it not enough to try the patience of humans? Will you try the patience of my God also? Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel. Isaiah 7:10-14 (NIV)

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God’s one and only Son. This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that their deeds will be exposed. But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what they have done has been done in the sight of God. John 3:16-21 (NIV)
