DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Peace Between Us April 5, 2026

Summary

On Easter, we celebrate that Jesus Christ rose from the dead and offers us true peace. In his message, Kyle talked about how we often search for peace in relationships, success or circumstances, but those things can't fully satisfy us. The Bible calls this deeper peace "shalom," meaning wholeness, rest and right relationship with God and others.

Our sin has broken that peace, but Jesus came to fix what we could not. Through His death and resurrection, He made a way for us to have peace with God—our sins forgiven—and to begin experiencing peace in our hearts and relationships now. When we say yes to Jesus, we receive His peace and can share it with others.

Scripture

While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and feet. And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate it in their presence.

He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms."

Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. He told them, "This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Luke 24:36-47 (NIV)
