Short Term Trip Code of Conduct

Short-term ministry trips are about representing Jesus Christ and Wooddale Church to people who may not know Jesus or Wooddale Church. Thus, as a member of a Wooddale Church short-term ministry trip it is expected that you conduct yourself according to the highest standards of integrity and morality, so as not to compromise the team, the ministry partners or the image of Christ. In summary, we ask that you refrain from any behavior that may hinder your ministry or the ministry of the team for the duration of the trip; and, we ask that you follow these guidelines, recognizing that, should you conduct yourself otherwise, you, the team and the ministry are put at risk. By reading and signing this Code of Conduct you are agreeing to abide by Wooddale's guidelines for the duration of your trip. Failure to follow these guidelines will result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the team, in which case you will travel home at your own expense.

I will:

1. Make my best effort to attend all team meetings prior to departure, during the trip and post-trip. (If unable to attend, arrangements must be made with team leaders to cover the material presented.) This includes team retreats.
2. Go as a servant of Jesus Christ and adopt that attitude when dealing with fellow team members and people I meet during the trip.
3. Be flexible in attitude, recognizing that schedules and activities may change.
4. Interact with all team members, not just those I knew prior to the trip.
5. Accept and submit to the leadership and authority of the team leader(s) and/or country host(s) and promise to abide by his or her decisions as they concern this ministry trip.
6. Respect advice given by the country host(s) regarding attire, eating and drinking, personal interactions, and traditions that will help me better understand and assimilate into the local culture.
7. Follow the guidelines provided by my team leader(s) and/or country host(s) regarding gift giving.
8. Be circumspect regarding what could be perceived as flaunting our wealth. It is not uncommon that the jewelry, cameras, electronics etc. that we take with us on a trip cost more than those we visit may earn in years.
9. Be respectful in regard to photography. We all want to remember our trips with photos. Yet we must respect the dignity of our hosts. This is especially true of video recording.
10. Ensure that the team leader(s) knows where I am at all times. I will not wander off or follow my own agenda regarding the use of my time during the trip.
11. Refrain from using tobacco, alcoholic beverages, or illegal drugs at any time while on the ministry trip.
12. Refrain from inappropriate public displays of affection with team members and one-on-one social activities with nationals of the opposite sex.

I have read and understand and agree to the above guidelines for conduct while on my short-term ministry trip. I recognize and agree that in the event that my conduct is considered so unsatisfactory that it jeopardizes the success of the trip, and that mediation during the trip has failed to correct my behavior, that my services with the ministry shall end and I shall return home immediately at my own expense.

I agree with the above expectations and certify that the information in this application is true to the best of my knowledge.
